Congregational Meeting (re: current finances) Sunday, May 2, 12:30 pm

A Congregational Meeting will take place on Sunday, May 2, in the Sanctuary to discuss the 2010 budget. This is in view of the current shortfall due to a drop in funds pledged this year. To date $156,976 has been pledged as we continue to move toward our financial commitment goal. We are making progress, but must still consider our shortfall. Please join the board and others to review our next steps as we plan for the rest of the year.

A list of voting members (those who have signed the membership book and who contribute financially to the church) is posted on the bulletin board in Phoenix Hall near the door to the kitchen.

Only members whose names appear on the voting members' list will be permitted to vote, but friends are also welcome -- as are members who are unable to financially support the church.

This is an important meeting, so please plan to attend.

Share-the-Plate

This month, all the unidentified cash in the Sunday offertory will be given to l'Abri en Ville (www.labrienville.org). Their mission:

Our mission at L'Abri en Ville is to provide a stable and fulfilling environment for persons with a mental illness through safe, affordable housing and inclusion in a supportive community. We believe in a society in which persons can be full, contributing members despite a mental illness

Each month, all of the unidentified loose cash in the Sunday collection is donated to a local organization in need of our support. Cheques can also be made out to the organization which will issue tax receipts directly.

Entre Nous

There will be a memorial service for Dorothy Clarke on Saturday, May 8 at 2 pm in the Sanctuary followed by a reception in Phoenix Hall. Dorothy passed away April 11. She had been a beloved longtime member of this congregation, having joined in 1953. She served as board president in 1981, and was a member of the search committee that called Rev. Ray Drennan as minister in 1995. She will be fondly remembered for the work she did to rescue and restore the church's archives after the fire that destroyed our Simpson Street building. Her gentle, kind and caring presence and steady friendship will be greatly missed.

Sadly, Anna Katelle Kersulis, grandmother of David Kersulis died on April 23. She was 96 years old.

We hold in our hearts Sylvia Krutz and David Horan and their children Riannon and Shannon, along with Helen Krutz Weil and her children Brigitte, Fredella and Silka. Sylvia and Helen's mother, Emma Krutz, died peacefully on March 16 at the age of 84. Our apologies for last month's incomplete notice.

Tessie Tomasek is recovering from a broken hip. Cards of encouragement would be welcome.

We rejoice with Rev. Peter Boullata who has been chosen as the candidate for settled minister of the First Parish of Lexington, Massachusetts. Peter will spend the week of May 2 candidating. The congregation will have its vote to decide if they call him as their minister on May 9. We send our best wishes to Peter and to Lexington. We know Peter is an excellent choice!

A note from Barbara Jackson

During the last months when I have been confined to hospital, I have been comforted and encouraged by messages from so many of you. Your cards, phone calls, and visits really helped to keep my spirits up during a difficult time, and I was very touched that so many of you were wishing me well. Thank you all so much.

A special thanks to the Caring Committee who kept closely in touch with me and were ready to help when needed. In the past I have seen Caring Committees come and go. Let's make sure that our committee here grows, develops, and remains an integral part of our community.

The Easter Bunny was here!

Bunny earsThe UCM hospitality committee hosted a complimentary Easter lunch on Sunday, April 4 in Phoenix Hall. We knew the Easter Bunny had been here when nine dozen deviled eggs magically appeared on the banquet table, which was also laden with ham, potato salad, vegetable platters, delicious dips, coleslaw and pickles. Desserts consisted of home-baked hot pagan buns, braided Easter bread with interwoven dyed eggs, colourful fruit platters, and ginger halvah. About 150 people attended the lunch. Hippity Hop!

News from the RE (Religious Education) programs

May 9 is Teacher Appreciation Day

After last year's successful combined salute to Mother's Day and formal appreciation of all those at UCM who help create and run our religious education program, we are once again holding a similar ceremony.

We will honour everyone who has contributed to the flourishing of our children this year, including:

- * those who told stories in Spirit Play or Time for ALL Ages.
- * those who've been a doorkeeper for Spirit Play
- * those who volunteered for the OWL weekend or a jr youth sleepover.
- * those who prepared snacks, cleaned shelves or bought supplies.
- * those who assisted or performed at a multi-generational service.

We will have the Children's Music Project sing to all our wonderful helpers and want everyone to be there. Be prepared to stand up and be counted among the many different categories of RE volunteers we will mention to give yourselves and others a rousing round of Bravo!

Recruiting next year's RE volunteers

Encourage all of our congregation to sign up for RE because our children need to see that the whole congregation supports and loves them. I also want our children, especially boys, to see that there is a future for them in the church as adults. If all they see is women, that may not develop. So I look for men to participate; I also look for elders, young adults, GBLT people, all based upon this idea that our teachers need to reflect the congregation as a whole. (Adapted from a letter to the Liberal Religious Education Association, from Liz Jones, Director of Religious Education, San Diego)

Interested in getting involved? Please speak to Caroline Balderston Parry.

The Cosmic Walk at the multigenerational service on April 18.

Donations of supplies and organizers wanted

There are many generous people to thank for donating things and time to RE, although some are anonymous. We're grateful for some big rolls of paper from Frank Greene, a wooden tool box toy from Laurel Tidman and family and a laminator from Christine Laurent. Also, at Easter, the children received small gifts that actually came from Rosenn Millin, posthumously.

But please ask before donating. Some things we may not need and they end up clogging our office shelves. Please call or email before giving.

Our valiant RE assistant, Ivy Trudel, has led a fabulous effort to reorganize all the RE storage areas. Both Cindy Yang and Sarah Thompson have helped with additional labeling and storing.

French RE, Sunday, May 16, at 10:30

All children 4 to 12 years old are invited to the Children's Chapel for the fourth lesson, "Earth," in the Native American Spirituality series on the elements.

Junior and Senior Youth Activities We are Pretty Principled

At their March sleepover, the junior youth hunted throughout the church building to see how many signs or posters listing our seven principles they could find. Any guesses?

Exploring all four levels of the church, they found 13 varied posters or displays about the principles, or as the Spirit Play materials term them, the "Seven Promises". They also counted 9 copies of the bilingual blue and green poster printed like the big beautiful four part metal one.

Saturday, May 15 - last Junior Youth Sleepover

Barbecues Needed for June 13

For the 2010 RE Finger Food Finale June 13. The Hospitality Committee is hosting a complimentary BBQ to finish the RE year, but needs some actual BBQs and great grillers to make it happen. If you have a portable BBQ/hibachi you could bring to church on June 13, please contact Nancy Kleins nan@tradewords.ca

Membership Musings Longtime member Elizabeth Speyer shares her thoughts...

The following is a letter dated March 10 sent to David Kersulis, President, from Elizabeth Speyer, a longtime member. The letter is published with Mrs Speyer's permission.

Dear David,

Like the Canadian government, our church has a deficit. And like the Canadian tax system, sources of revenue are inequitably borne. You have noted that the same pattern is evident in the sharing of institutional responsibility.

This is the crisis of democracy everywhere. I believe that education is at fault in not inculcating civic consciousness as a major component of the curriculum.

You have accepted more than your share of the burden of UCM management. We should be grateful.

So, cuts in spending and an increase in contributions are both required. Some "hard talk" to the membership may be necessary.

Warmest regards,
Elizabeth

P.S. I am in the Church office every Monday afternoon doing telecrew duty. Gladly! The members of the telecrew team make a substantial financial contribution, obviating the need for a secretarial assistant for the office administrator.

Taking Action in the World

Money raised for seeds and solar cookers for Haïti

The Soup-and-Bread lunch after service on Sunday, April 11 raised over $200 for seeds and solar cookers for Haiti.

Genevieve Delmas-Patterson, recovering from a broken hip, left on April 14 for the devastated country, taking seeds to Leogane where she and her companions are teaching the use of solar cookers to village and camp elders -- who, in turn, can share this knowledge with others.

This was the first step in what Genevieve hopes will be an ongoing project to help people cook cheaply, and maybe even earn some money from baking bread.

For updates on their trip, visit www.voiceforhaiti.com

The Lee Poy-Paxman and Downey-Barnes families enjoy Empty Bowls lunch!

Empty Bowls raises over $10,000 for Hungry

Once again, our joint venture with the Congregation Dorshei Emet on April 17 and 25 was a huge success. Together, we raised almost $11,000, 100 per cent of which will go to the NDG Food Depot, Dorshei Emet Hanukkah Food Basket Fund, Fondation Générations Foundation, Multi Caf and Santropol Roulant. Thank you to everyone, especially the potters, musicians, bread- and soup-makers, and countless volunteers who made the two days so warm and wonderful. If you'd like to volunteer for next year, please let us know!

Second chance Empty Bowls on Sunday, May 2 (see page 4 for details).
